TRIP TO SANTA’S HIDEAWAY
Only Wed 24.12.2014 (11:00 – 15:00)

Everyone in Lapland knows that Santa has a secret hideaway where he goes to relax. Now also you will have a chance to see this hideaway. Santa himself will not be there. He is a bit busy now. But he has left you a message. You just have to find it!

This trip starts with about ½ hour guided coach transfer to a forest hut. The coach is stopped by different animals of the forest; bears and hares will guide the guests through a winding trail. Here and there you may even see Santa’s little helpers hiding in forest. Some of them may even make friends with children and share the path with them. Along the trail the children can see some traces of Santa himself; there are fresh traces of his sledge and there might even be some objects and presents fallen out of his sledge.

Finally the trail leads to a little hut in the middle of the forest where long tables are set up for enjoying Christmas Eve’s lunch. At the hut every child is invited to visit the tiny hut decorated in Christmas style. There each child receives a personal letter from Santa. In the letter Santa encourages them to feed the birds and other animals of the forests and should they do this, he promises to pay a visit in the evening.

The Santa’s little helpers help the children to set up the food for the birds and after this they will go together to fetch some Christmas trees to decorate them for the joy of animals and Santa’s helpers. Also Santa’s reindeers have arrived to the hut, ready to take everyone on a test drive. If you manage this Lappish mode of transportation, you will be issued an international reindeer driver’s license. And since you are at the Arctic Circle, you can not leave without participating in special Lapp ceremony of crossing the Arctic Circle! Then it’s time to take the trail back to the coaches which take you back to the hotel.

DURATION: 4 hours
PRICE: EUR 129 /person
